FIRST AND FINAL FEE APPLICATION FOR ALLOWANCE OF COMPENSATION AND REIMBURSEMENT OF EXPENSES FOR ORTIZ & ORTIZ L.L.P AS DEBTOR'S COUNSEL

Pursuant to, among other things, 11 U.S.C. § 331, Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2016, the United States Trustee's Guidelines for Reviewing Applications for Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses Filed under 11 U.S.C. § 331, and Local Bankr. R. 2016-1, Ortiz & Ortiz, L.L.P. (the "O & O") seeks entry of an order approving its request for an award of $13,652.63 for final compensation and no reimbursement of expenses as the above-captioned Debtor's Counsel. In support of its request, O & O states as follows:

Background

1. On July 11, 2018 (the "Petition Date"), Toni G. Simons (the "Debtor") filed a petition for relief under Chapter 13.

2. On July 11, 2018, Michael J. Macco was appointed as the Chapter 13 Trustee (the “Trustee”) in the Debtor’s case.

3. The following narrative summarizes the services rendered by O & O, to the Trustee in the period commencing April 18, 2018, through April 26, 2021. This narrative is not intended to be a comprehensive description of all services rendered during this period. For such description, see the detailed billing statements attached as Exhibit A. The Applicant rendered the following legal services to the Debtor:

- a. Preparation and Filing of Debtor’s Petition, statements, schedules and other legal documents;
- b. Conferences with the Debtor;
- c. Preparation and Service of Debtor’s Chapter 13 Plan(s);
- d. Amendments to Debtor’s Schedules and Plan;
- e. Attendance at all court hearings;
- f. Obtain order reclassifying second mortgage as unsecured claim;
- g. Prepare and submit four applications for a loan modification; and
- h. Negotiate Motion to Vacate Order.

4. All of the professional services were rendered solely in connection with this case on behalf of the Debtor.

5. On April 19, 2018, the Debtor and the Applicant entered into a retainer agreement. The Applicant received a pre-petition payment of $3,500 from the Debtor. Prior to the Petition Date, my office billed the Debtor $250 for services rendered in anticipation of filing the bankruptcy case. As a result, the Debtor had a remaining credit balance of $2,940.00 for the work performed on the Debtor’s Chapter 13 case after the Petition Date. The court’s filing fee was paid from the retainer.

6. The Applicant's time records for the services performed on behalf of the Debtor by the Applicant's partner, associate, and paralegals from April 18, 2018, through April 26, 2021 is attached as Exhibit A. All time is billed in six minute increments. As set forth therein, the Applicant devoted 101.71 hours to this matter during this period of time, having a value of $20,556.50 at the Applicant's billing rates.

7. The names of the partner, associate, and paralegals involved in this matter, the time spent by each of them, and their normal billing rates in matters of this type are:

Name of Professional	Title	Hours	Hourly Rate (Blended)	Fee
Norma E. Ortiz	Partner	27.00	$350	$9,460.50
Martha de Jesus	Associate	22.00	$300	$6,615.00
Nicolas Santacruz Cynthia Narea Athena Gonzales	Paralegal	50.7	$100	$5,068.00
TOTAL		99.7	$212.07	$21,143.50
Expenses Incurred (excluding $310.00 filing fee)				0.00
Remaining Balance of Pre-petition retainer				$2,940.00
Outstanding Balance				$18,203.50

8. The Applicant's experience indicates that all time actually devoted by its partner, associate, and paralegals with respect to a client's affairs is not always entered in its time records. Occasionally, staff members do not record all of the services rendered on legal matters, such as short conferences and miscellaneous telephone calls. For these reasons, the Court should regard the aggregate of recorded hours reported in the time records attached as Exhibit A to be a conservative compilation of the services rendered to the Debtor.

9. The Debtor should successfully emerge from her Chapter 13 case. She has obtained a permanent loan modification and should complete her 36 month plan by July 2021. The Chapter 13 Trustee is holding $56,276.00 of funds paid into the plan by the Debtor.. If the fees requested herein are awarded, unsecured creditors should receive no less than 73% of the amount of the claims filed.

RELIEF REQUESTED

10. The Applicant requests an award of fees $13,652.63. The amount of fees sought includes a voluntary 25% reduction on the outstanding amount of fees incurred by the Debtor. Bankruptcy Code Section 330(a)(4)(B) provides that in a “chapter 13 case in which the debtor is an individual, the court may allow reasonable compensation to the debtor’s attorney for representing the interests of the debtor in connection with the bankruptcy case based on a consideration of the benefit and necessity of such services to the debtor and the other factors set forth in this section.” Other factors listed in the section include:

- (A) the time spent on such services;
- (B) the rates charged for such services;
- (C) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this title;
- (D) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed;
- (E) with respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the bankruptcy field; and
- (F) whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title.11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(3).

See also In re Moukazis, 479 B.R. 247 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. 2012); In re Wesseldine, 434 B.R. 31, 36 (Bankr. N.D.N.Y. 2010).

11. Generally speaking, Bankruptcy courts conduct a three-step process in determining the reasonableness of requests for compensation. First, the courts attempt to ascertain the nature and extent of the services rendered by an applicant. Second, the courts attempt to assess the value and quality of the services rendered by the applicant. Third, after a review of the first two steps, the courts have fixed the reasonable amount of compensation.

12. It is respectfully submitted that the Applicant has described the nature and extent of the services performed on behalf of the Debtor in great detail. In addition, because the Applicant was required to assist the Debtor in preparing four loan modification applications in order to obtain a permanent loan modification, the amount of services required was above average for this type of consumer case. The Applicant was able to eliminate the Debtor's second mortgage lien and assist the Debtor in providing creditors with a substantial dividend. As a result, it is respectfully submitted that the extent and quality of the work performed warrants the Court's finding that the fees requested are reasonable and fair.

13. The Applicant has not filed a prior application for fees in this case.

14. The Debtor has reviewed and approved the requested amount.

NOTICE

15. Notice of this application has been provided to all interested parties, the Debtor, the Chapter 13 trustee, and the United States Trustee.

WHEREFORE, the Applicant respectfully requests for the entry of an Order granting

Final Allowances to Ortiz & Ortiz, L.L.P., in the amount of $13,652.63 and no reimbursement of expenses for services rendered as attorneys for the Debtor in their Chapter 13 Proceedings during the period of April 18, 2018, to April 26, 2021, and permitting the Chapter 13 trustee to disburse to the Applicant the fees awarded by the court, and for such other and further relief as the Court may deem, just, proper and equitable.
